

Laguna Green

In the heart of the "Vega Baja", irrigated by the river Segura, in an area known as "La Huerta de Europa" (the orchard of Europe). Here the land is extremely fertile and has been used for centuries to cultivate citric fruits, you will find LAGUNA GREEN RESIDENCIAL & GOLF. Situated between the historical city of Orihuela, the old capital of the kingdom which was also venue to the bishopry, and the lively tourist towns of Guardamar, Santa Pola and Torrevieja and Jacarilla.

LAGUNA GREEN RESIDENCIAL & GOLF is surrounded by an ocean of orange groves and undulating hills and enjoys being close to the town Los Montesinos and we have already started the work of on constructing the new golf course. It is a 18 hole championship course, designed by Manuel Piñero, winner of the Ryder Cup, PGA and World Cup, one of the famous Spanish golfer along with Severiano Ballesteros. Also in the Costa Blanca area there are other golf courses to offer. You can choose from LA FINCA, which is the closest, and also VILLAMARTÍN, CAMPOAMOR and LAS RAMBLAS.

Set in a natural and relaxed environment, but is excellently connected by road and motorway to all surrounding villages and areas. MARGOVE and GOLF INVEST have undertaken this ambitious project to bring you a quality residential, and also sporting urbanization. With plans also for other sports facilities, this accompanied with land set aside to build schools, can only enhance the area.

Living in LAGUNA GREEN RESIDENCIAL & GOLF will give you opportunity to experience an authentic Spain, where you can soak up the culture of its pueblecitos (small villages), far away from mass tourism but always close to your home.

Everyday there are street markets held in different villages, and all throughout the year you can enjoy the popular local fiestas of the surrounding towns.

You will also discover the delicious gastronomy of the region, the type you can only find when you move away from the coast, as well as the warmth and hospitality that characterize its inhabitants.

You can choose from a wide variety of properties, all with a traditional design, exceptionally constructed in a rural and mediterranean environment by MARGOVE, who have more than 20 years experience.

There is a wide variety of properties, Villas, bungalow, duplex and apartments plus commercial units will benefit from all day sun and the cool sea breeze, which always blows during the summer months. MARGOVE have paid special attention to recreate the style and design of the patios from the typical farming houses of days gone by, with their typical tiles and grills, ect.

Other strong points are the large towers, with their fabulous views, and the meticulous attention to detail of the façades, which together with the large variety of different models to choose from, make your property unique, and reflects a certain way of life.
