

Fronoso Valley

FRONDOSO VALLEY is a luxurious residential development sometimes missed by the average British house buyer. Its location and surrounding beauty are a must see for any purchaser as pictures alone and descriptions can not say enough. The Fronoso Valley is situated in the "Sierra de Carrascoy" nature reserve, with stunning views over the city of Murcia and Sierra España, and is north-facing, providing coolness in summer. The top of the "Carrascoy" mountain stands at almost 1,000 metres above Murcia in the Valle del Segura. You can enjoy long walks along the paths running through this range of mountains, beneath the thick pines on the slopes, and you could run into herons, rabbits, wild boar and other local species. Fronoso Valley is built on the slopes of a nature reserve with pine forests, commanding clear views of the scenery in every direction.

In Fronoso Valley you can choose between two, three or four bedroom terraced townhouses, semi detached 3 bedroom villas plus apartments and maisonettes. Within the development there are sport areas, green spaces and social and communal locations. The residential boasts communal swimming pools set in beautiful landscaped gardens.

The development will have around the clock surveillance service. These beautiful ground floor maisonettes Type C comprise of: garden, terrace, reinforced entrance door leading to a living/dining area, kitchen, two bedrooms and one fully fitted bathroom. The region provides all the necessary services e.g. 15 minutes drive to the local hospital, 15 minutes from Murcia City where you can find bars, commercial centres, cinemas, restaurants and historical monuments. Murcia San Javier airport is only 35 minutes drive from Nuevo Torre Guil.
